Former agent of the Southern Express Co., T. M. King, arrived here from Tallahassee yesterday and exchanges positions with Agent Lumpkin. Agent Lumpkin leaves for Tallahassee tonight, or as soon as his wife is able to make the trip. He takes with him Messrs. Register and Lunsford, and Mr. King brings Mr. Kirby, of Talla, Ga., to assist him. Mr. King thinks there is no town in Florida like Live Oak, and he can be depended upon to become a permanent resident.

At a meeting of the directors of the Worth Stephens Co., last night Mr. T. S. Baisden was elected president; Mr. J. L. Edwards, vice-president, and Mr. D. O. Henry, treasurer. This company is one of the largest and most prosperous mercantile establishments in this section of the country, and is officered by men of experience in the mercantile world who are capable of managing large establishments, and of building and increasing the business.

Rev. C. W. Irvin, of Fort Worth, Texas, is in our city, the guest of his cousin, J. F. Sterwood, and family. Rev. Irvin has been for more than twenty years a member of the North-west Methodist Texas conference, but at present is not actively engaged in the ministry on account of feeble health. He is also an old newspaper man and thoroughly understands the newspaper and printing business in all its branches. He will be in the city for a few days, and we hope Florida's wonderful climate may prove beneficial to him.

The Democrat desires to congratulate the city council upon their action at Monday night's meeting, in taking steps toward building and establishing for our city a city market building. The time in the growth and development of our city has come when such a move is absolutely necessary, and we hope to see this matter pushed along as rapidly as possible until the market building is completed. The following committee was appointed by the council to select, and, if possible, procure a suitable building site for the market: Dr. Barclay, Dr. Anderson and D. H. Bardin. They are to make their report at the next regular meeting.

A Very Welcome Visitor
